Nothing Else Matters

Metallica

Tom: Em

Composição: James Hetfield / Lars Ulrich

Cifraclu

```
[Intro]
                                                     So close no matter how far (Violão)
                                                     Couldn't be much more from the heart
Parte 1 de 11
                                                  Em
                                                                         D D4 C9
                                                     Forever trusting who we
Parte 2 de 11
                                                           B7
                                                     And nothing else matters
Parte 3 de 11
                                                   (Riff 1)
Parte 4 de 11
                                                                            D4 C9
                                                     Never opened myself this way
Parte 5 de 11
                                                     Life is ours, we live it our way
Parte 6 de 11
                                                  Em
                                                     All these words I don't just
Parte 7 de 11
                                                     And nothing else matters
H.N. . . .
Parte 8 de 11
                                                   (Riff 2)
                                                                              D4 C9
Parte 9 de 11
                                                     Trust I seek and I find in you
                                                                       D
Parte 10 de 11
                                                     Every day for us something new
Parte 11 de 11
                                                     Open mind for a different view
(Guitarra)
                                                     And nothing else matters
[Primeira Parte]
                                                   [Passagem]
                                                   [Primeiro Refrão]
(Violão)
Parte 1 de 4
                                                   (Guitarra)
Parte 2 de 4
                                                  P.M.
                                                            D4 D
                                                                           D9
Parte 3 de 4
                                                     Never ca___red for what they do
Parte 4 de 4
                                                     Never ca___red for what they know
Parte 4 de 4 (Variação)
                                                     But I know
Parte 4 de 4 (Variação)
                                                   [Segunda Parte]
(Guitarra Base)
                                                     So close no matter how far
```

```
Couldn't be much more from the heart
                                                    Open mind for a different view
                     D D4 C9
                                                         B7
                                                                      Em
  Forever trusting who we
                                                     And nothing else matters
  And nothing else matters
                                                 [Terceiro Refrão]
                                                           D4 D
[Segundo Refrão]
                                                                         D9
                                                     Never car___ed for what they say
         D4
             D
                       D9
                                                           D4 D
                                                                        D9
   Never ca___red for what they do
                                                     Never ca___red for games they play
         D4 D
                       D9
                                                           D4 D
                                                                         D9
                                                 D
                                                     Never ca___red for what they do
   Never ca___red for what they know
                                                           D4 D
                                                                         D9
   But I know
                                                    Never ca___red for what they know
                                                            Em
[Primeiro Solo]
                                                    And I know, Yeah!
(Violão)
                                                  [Segundo Solo] E5 D5 C5
                                                                            ( F#5 G#5 F#5 )
                                                                E5
                                                                    D5
                                                                        C5
                                                                            ( F#5
                                                                                   G#5
Parte 1 de 4
                                                                        C5
                                                                            ( F#5
                                                                                   G#5
                                                                G5 B5 E5
Parte 2 de 4
                                                 So close no matter how far
Parte 3 de 4
Parte 4 de 4
                                                 Couldn't be much more from the heart
(Guitarra)
                                                 Forever trusting who we
                                                 And nothing else matters
(Riff 1)
                                                  [Parte Final]
                        D4 C9
  Never opened myself this way
                                                  [Riff 1]
  Life is ours, we live it our way
                                                  (Guitarra 1)
                                   C9
  All these words I don't just say
       B7
                                                  (Guitarra 2)
   And nothing else matters
                                                  [Riff 2]
(Riff 2)
                          D4 C9
                                                  (Guitarra Solo)
  Trust I seek and I find in you
```

C9

Fm

D

Every day for us something new

Em

D4